

MDS World Awareness Day
October 25

People with MDS have reduced numbers of one or more types of blood cells

Three main types of cells make up your blood:

Red blood cells that transport oxygen around the body

White blood cells that fight infections

Platelets that are involved in blood clotting

Get a #BloodCount

